Order Denying Motion to Consolidate

[ECF No. 10]

10 Clara Bernabe sues the State of Nevada, Clark County, and Ditech Financial, LLC for 11 “trespass on the case.” She claims that these defendants “exceeded” their “jurisdiction under color 12 of law” “in an attempt to unlawfully and forcefully extort money from counterclaimants and remove 13 counterclaimants from [their] domicile and land.”¹ Defendant Ditech Financial moves to consolidate 14 this action with a prior action by Clara and Carlito Bernabe against Ditech alleging violations of the 15 Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.² The Bernabes voluntarily dismissed their FDCPA case against 16 Ditech a month before Ditech moved for consolidation,³ and the FDCPA case was closed. As a 17 result, there are no longer multiple “actions before the court” capable of consolidation under Local 18 Rule 42-1(b), and the judge presiding over the earlier-filed case has denied the request for 19 consolidation.⁴
